

My Commitment to Christ to Love my Daughters

by Kevin Swanson, 2013 Father and Daughter Banquet

With God's help and by the power of the Blood of Christ:

1. I will give up sinful habits that feed lust and starve love.
2. I will seek the spiritual health of my daughters.
3. I will surrender my self-oriented pastimes that interfere valuable time I could spend with my daughters.
4. I will be patient with my daughter's failings and weaknesses as God is patient with me.
5. I will be grateful for my daughters as a precious gift from God
6. I will endeavor to train my daughters to fear God, work with industriousness, to have compassion on the poor, and to care for their household's needs.
7. I will do my utmost to protect my daughters from the physical and spiritual dangers.
8. I will nurture and encourage my daughters in the gifts that God has given them.
9. I will emotionally support, show compassion and affection to my daughters so that they will flourish emotionally and feel the security of the love of God.
10. I will humble myself and ask forgiveness when I sin against my daughters, in anger and self-centeredness or unloving speech and behavior.
